

The Valley Repertory Company's 25th Anniversary Season
2010-2011

Fall 2010
Almost, Maine
by John Cariani

Join Valley Rep on a journey to the remote, mythical town of Almost, Maine. In this delightful midwinter night's dream, the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, and Almost's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and often hilarious ways. Knees are bruised. Hearts are broken. But the bruises heal, and the hearts mend—almost. A romantic comedy that's sure to please.

Winter 2011
*VRC's 2nd LabWorks 15-Minute New Play Contest

Due to the overwhelming success of our first contest, Valley Rep is proud to bring you 12 more exciting new short plays by writers from all over the country. Come be a part of the excitement as you vote to choose this year's winners in two categories: comedy and drama.

Spring 2011
Romeo and Juliet
by William Shakespeare

The most enduring romantic tragedy of all time has also been the inspiration for countless movies and love songs: now come see the play that started it all. The thrilling story of two warring families, the Capulets and the Montagues, whose children believe their love can end the feud, is as popular now as it was 400 years ago. Secret lovers, fatal fights, the tragic and untimely deaths of its young, idealistic heroes, Romeo's friend Mercutio and Juliet's bloodthirsty cousin Tybalt, her hilarious and bawdy Nurse, the well-meaning Friar Laurence, whose missteps contribute to the lovers' deaths...all have been delighting audiences for centuries and are sure to thrill Valley Rep's audience as well.
